Fancy a week's holiday in South Wales with full board? Details below.

The Club is planning a 7-night Painting Holiday, based in Brecon, Date: 23-Jun-2023, with HF Holidays - Nythfa House, Brecon, Powys, LD3 7NN

Although the HF Holiday title is 'self-guided walking' it is a holiday week with options to sightsee or walk independently and, of course, paint. For the non painters you may be able to book and pay extra to join the walking groups if any are available that week. Members may share a room with a non member.

Bring your partner or a friend - someone with whom you are happy to share a room.

Go sightseeing or if you decide to paint join one of the club members who are painting.

If you join the walks, follow the route suggestions that fit your requirements and fitness level, (details planned by HF Holidays).

Built in 1867, Nythfa House is full of charm and character with extensive gardens. Located on the edge of Brecon, it sits in a peaceful location within the Brecon Beacons National Park. It has a dining room with picture windows looking out to the gardens and conservatory, complete with grapevine. There are 28 bedrooms, some of which are in the garden annexe.

The indoor swimming pool is a great place to relax.
